†††JMJ††† Humor for today †††JMJ†††

If every man were as true to his country as he is to his God, we would be in the lot of trouble.

†††JMJ†††

A new bride cooked her first meal for her husband. “My mother taught me to cook, and I can cook two things well – apple pie and meatloaf.”

The husband took a bite of his supper and asked, “and which one is this?”

†††JMJ††† Short meditation for today †††JMJ†††

If I belong entirely to God because He has created me, what remains for me to give Him for having redeemed me in so loving a manner? Reflect, Christian. You have been enriched, by an act of love of Jesus Christ, with all that is necessary for your salvation. God has poured upon you all heavenly blessings through the merits of Our Savior, and in consideration of the love He has had for you. – Saint Bernard.

Saint Ambrose was animated with gratitude to God when reflecting upon the gratitude manifested by certain domestic animals. Who would not blush with shame, said he, to reflect upon our ingratitude, when we see that even the beasts are not ungrateful? Does the dog forget the master who feeds him? Let us cease to be ingrates.

Let us be grateful to Jesus Christ, Who has redeemed us from the tyranny of the demon and merited for us by His sufferings life eternal. Saint Gertrude, on awakening in the morning, seemed to hear the Beloved of her heart saying, “Awake! How long wilt thou give thyself to sleep? The King of heaven is your spouse; He burns with ardent love for thee; He has washed thee in His blood, He has delivered Himself to death for thee, because He loves thee. Wilt thou hesitate to return love for love? Could He buy thy love at a higher price? He has loved thee more than Himself, since He has not spared Himself for thee. Love demands love.” A priest of God, full of zeal, often said to those whom he directed: “Your body belongs to Him Who nourishes your soul with His own body; your blood, to Him Who has shed for you His blood; your life, to Him Who has given His life for you.”

Prayer

O my Savior, I offer Thee amends for all the ingratitude that men offer Thee! Alas! I have seen myself a monster of ingratitude. If I cannot give my blood for Thine, I can give love for love.

†††JMJ††† Today's reflection from the *Imitation of Christ †††JMJ†††

Son, thou oughtest not be turned back, nor presently cast down, when thou hearest what is the way of the perfect; but be drawn the more onwards toward its lofty heights, or at least aspire ardently for their attainment.

†††JMJ††† A Scripture quote for today †††JMJ†††

And entering into the house, they found the Child with Mary his Mother, and falling down they adored Him.
