

An Old Farmer's Advice:

- * Your fences need to be horse-high, pig-tight and bull-strong.
 - * Keep skunks and bankers at a distance.
 - * Life is simpler when you plow around the stump.
- * A bumble bee is considerably faster than a John Deere tractor.
 - * Words that soak into your ears are whispered...not yelled.
 - * Meanness don't jes' happen overnight.
 - * Forgive your enemies. It messes up their heads.
- * Do not corner something that you know is meaner than you.
 - * It don't take a very big person to carry a grudge.
 - * You cannot unsay a cruel word.
 - * Every path has a few puddles.
 - * When you wallow with pigs, expect to get dirty.
 - * The best sermons are lived, not preached.
- * Most of the stuff people worry about ain't gonna happen anyway.
 - * Don't judge folks by their relatives.
 - * Remember that silence is sometimes the best answer.
- * Live a good, honorable life. Then when you get older and think back, you'll enjoy it a second time.
 - * Don't interfere with somethin' that ain't botherin' you none.
 - * Timing has a lot to do with the outcome of a rain dance.
 - * If you find yourself in a hole, the first thing to do is stop diggin'.

- * Sometimes you get, and sometimes you get got.
- * The biggest troublemaker you'll probably ever have to deal with, watches you from the mirror every mornin'.
 - * Always drink upstream from the herd.
- * Good judgment comes from experience, and a lotta that comes from bad judgment.
 - * Lettin' the cat outta the bag is a whole lot easier than puttin' it back in.
- * If you get to thinkin' you're a person of some influence, try orderin' somebody else's dog around.
 - * Live simply. Love generously. Care deeply. Speak kindly. Leave the rest to God.
