

NOTICE: I, Patrick Henry, no longer remember who it was who sent me the following information; nor if the person who sent it to me is the same person who wrote the information. I just came across it again among some files I have on an older computer. I encourage you to read it and apply its messages to your life.

†††JMJ†††
J.M.J

Truth and Error Can Never Have Equal Rights

That Error Which Precedes Truth is Only an Ignorance of it:

That Which Follows is a Hatred of Truth!

The Church of Vatican II

“By their fruits you shall know them.” (Matt. 7:15-16)

Truly, our hearts go out to all of you who are attending the Church of Vatican II and don't realize you have been robbed of your precious Catholic Faith, without which no one can be saved. There are undoubtedly many among you who are under the impression that papal encyclicals, Church doctrine etc., from past centuries, even going back to the time of the Apostles are no longer binding or relevant. If this is your thinking you do not know your Catholic Faith and have come to believe the poisonous doctrine of the Church of Vatican II. Throughout this letter you will read many dogmatic, pre-Vatican II quotes from many sources which came down to us through the centuries. These truths were taught from generation to generation in order to give Catholics a strong foundation in the truths of the Catholic Faith. I can say without hesitation that the Church of Vatican II detested all of these writings and the truths they contained; they made it a priority to immediately destroy as many of these books as possible and discontinue their use in all of their schools, convents, seminaries etc. I can personally attest that truck loads of books were brought to dumps and when faithful Catholics offered to buy them they were told the orders from Archdiocesan officials were to have these precious spiritual treasures destroyed. They simply did not want anyone to have access to the truth! This, from the Baltimore Catechism, “A true Catholic must believe all that the Church teaches, (from the time of the Apostles) because God has revealed these truths. We cannot pick and choose which dogmas of Faith to accept and to reject because that is the very essence of heresy. Nor can we suppose that dogmas of Faith can be set aside as no longer ‘relevant,’ nor can they be modified, or altered in any way on the pretext of ‘adapting to the changing needs and circumstances of the times,’ because that is the essence of Modernism (as taught by the Church of Vatican II).” According to Our Lord’s command and the inspiration of the Holy Ghost every Pope, from the time of the Apostles upheld and leaned upon, all of the teachings of prior Popes, that is, until Vatican Council II.

A canonized Saint has already condemned the Church of Vatican II! Pope Saint Pius X in his encyclical, Pascendi Dominici Gregis condemned Modernism as, “The synthesis of all heresies,” which perfectly outlines all of the heresies of this new religion which was founded between 1962-65, when Vatican Council II was convened in Rome.

What is Modernism? “...a group of heresies, which have arisen in the very bosom of the Church at the beginning of this century...with the pretense of elevating and saving the Christian religion and the Catholic Church by means of radical renovation...Pope Saint Pius X issued two documents against modernism: The Decree of the Holy Office, Lamentabili (July 3, 1907), and the encyclical Pascendi (Sept. 8, 1907)...The encyclical is a lucid and deep analysis of these modern theories which subject the V-II church to continual change. Saint Pius X rightly concludes that modernism...leads to the suppression of all true religion and therefore, to atheism.” Dictionary of Dogmatic Theology, Rev. Pietro Parente, Imprimatur 1951.

What is Revelation? Catholic Encyclopedia, Imprimatur 1912. Revelation is, the “truths which have come down to us from heaven.” We learn, “That Revelation was given in its entirety by Our Lord to His Apostles. After the death of the last of the twelve it could receive no increment. It was, as the Church calls it, the “Deposit of Faith once delivered to the Saints” (Jude 1:3) for which the Church was to ‘contend’ but to which she could add nothing...it does not enable him (even a true Pope) to add jot or tittle to it.” To further guide the Faithful we are warned not to believe, “...that revealed doctrine is undergoing constant change (not to believe) dogmatic formulae will gradually cease to be so (not to believe) no religion, whether pagan or Christian, is wholly false...” (Emphasis added) The foregoing is the essence of Vatican II thinking and frequently uttered out of the mouths of the past four pretenders to the papal throne! Apostle Jude exhorts the faithful to contend earnestly for the faith first delivered to them and tells the faithful to, “beware of heretics.” We quote, “For certain men are secretly entered in, who were written of long ago unto this judgment ungodly men, turning the grace of Our Lord into riotousness, and denying the only sovereign Ruler, and Our Lord Jesus Christ.” (Jude 1: 4)

“Let no man deceive you by any means, for unless there come a revolt (apostasia – falling away) first...Whose coming is according to the work of Satan, in all power, and signs, and lying wonders, and in all seduction of iniquity to them that perish; because they received not the love of the truth that they might be saved. Therefore, God shall send them the operation of error to believe lying: That all may be judged who have consented to iniquity...Therefore brethren, stand fast and hold the traditions which you have learned, whether by word, or by our epistle.” (II Thess. II: 3, 9, 10, 11, 14)

In the last forty-six years since the heretical Vatican II Council, the Faith of untold millions was undermined and destroyed. This was accomplished through the process known as “patient gradualism,” i.e., never ending, on-going changes since 1962. In its place the misguided faithful in the pew had New sacraments, New catechisms, and in a word an entirely NEW RELIGION.

Perhaps this example, will allow you, dear reader, to gain a better perspective. We had stopped attending this New Church in the early 70’s and returned in 1978 to attend a funeral. Because we had been away for several years we noticed considerable changes, unlike those in the pew who had been witnessing these changes ever so gradually. Another funeral, this time eighteen years later, left us stunned as there was absolutely nothing left. This “mass” bore no resemblance whatever to the Mass instituted by Our Lord. There was not one recognizable fragment left! If those Catholics who had witnessed Vatican Council II in action as we did, had gone to sleep and woke up 46 years later in that Church, they too would be stunned, and only then would they know this was not the True Mass. They would echo the words of Mary Magdalene, “They have taken My Lord away...and we do not know where they have laid Him.” (John 20:2)

Pope Pius II (1458-1464) guided by the Holy Ghost realized, the evil of those who would appeal to a future Council, whether for the expressed or secret purpose of overturning Church Tradition and the Deposit of Faith. He issued the Papal Bull, Execrabilis, a solemnly defined and infallible statement which was reaffirmed by Pope Pius IX at the Vatican Council I in 1870. This Papal Bull binds all Catholics including Popes and Councils, “for all time,” forbidding them to ever appeal to a future Council for the purpose of overthrowing the infallibly defined judgments of prior Popes. The heretical council they call, Vatican Council II did exactly that! The penalty of excommunication laid down by Pope Pius II and reaffirmed at the Vatican Council I by Pope Pius IX was the severest punishment the Church may inflict: “excommunication.” This papal pronouncement has the grace of infallibility since it relates specifically to Faith and Morals. Execrabilis protects the Church, the Faith and the sheepfold from the heretical Vatican Council II. Moreover, it can never be revoked or rendered inoperative or null and void. Pope Pius II, in obedience to his solemn and paramount duty to protect the Faith and Morals of the Faithful, equipped the Apostolic Church with this potent weapon to combat all future illegal councils. The heretical Vatican Council II was convened for the express purpose of "reforming" the Church and "liberating" mankind from the past infallible judgments of the Holy See. The results have been devastating! Let no one tell you that a true pope guided by the Holy Ghost did not have the authority to set down rules and decrees that were to last until the end of time. Likewise, don't be misled by those who will tell you that another pope or council can set aside the solemn decrees of a former pope or council. Any pope or council that attempts to set aside the authoritative teachings of a previous pope or council is acting in deliberate defiance and disobedience to the authority of the Catholic Church.

The teaching of Vatican II on religious liberty, contained in Dignitatis Humanae, nearly word for word asserts the very doctrine which was condemned by Pope Pius VII in Post Tam Diuturnas, by Pope Gregory XVI in Mirari Vos, by Pope Pius IX in Quanta Cura, and by Pope Leo XIII in Libertas Praestantissimum.

The teaching of Vatican II concerning ecumenism, which states that non-Catholic religions are a "means of salvation," is overtly heretical. This heresy has been stated time and time again by both John Paul II and Benedict XVI. This doctrine directly contradicts the teaching of the Church that there is no salvation outside the Catholic Church, is called by Pope Pius IX "a most well-known Catholic dogma." In addition, the ecumenical practices which have resulted from this heretical doctrine are directly contrary to Mortalium Animos of Pope Pius XI. His Holiness refers to the very thing taught in the heretical Vatican II document on Ecumenism: "They (John Paul II and Benedict XVI ed.) presuppose the erroneous view that all religions are more or less good and praiseworthy...Those who hold such a view not only are in error, they distort the true idea of religion, and thus reject it...to favor this opinion, therefore, and to encourage such undertakings is tantamount to abandoning the religion revealed by God."

During 1962-1965, while Vatican Council II was in session, we read the daily transcripts and realized something revolutionary and frightening was happening. Indeed, it was during this time that the thirty pieces of silver found their way to the Papacy. In the end it gave birth to a New Church and a New Religion that flatly contradicted the teachings of the Catholic Church that had been taught for two thousand years. The bishops who signed the heretical decrees of Vatican II, though they may have come to the Council as bishops of the Catholic Church (some had clearly become heretics even before the council), they would nevertheless have ceased to be bishops of the True Church and instead returned home to their respective dioceses as “bishops” of a new counterfeit religion. All the while wearing the same miters, occupying the same diocese, and holding sway over the same priests and laity. Only those Catholics who loved the truth and were well grounded in their Faith were spared from this seduction, as they recognized the fulfillment of Our Lord’s prophecy pertaining to a worldwide apostasy from the Faith. (St. Paul, II Thess. 2:9-11)

In these prophecies God clearly warns us that prior to the Second Coming of Christ we will witness the greatest apostasy (falling away) of all time from the Catholic Church and the true Faith, and that it will be so enormously successful precisely because it will be a "disguised apostasy," one in which God will permit a counterfeit Catholic Church to arise, complete with counterfeit popes and a counterfeit hierarchy, a counterfeit Mass and sacraments -- and to persuade nearly all (Luke 18:8) the remaining Catholics to migrate, subtly and gradually -- "on the installment plan" -- from the real Catholic Church to the counterfeit one. This is exactly what has been going on for the last 46 years. God has permitted this universal apostasy by granting His enemies unprecedented access to and control over what was once His Church, in order to bring the remnant of the end times to the ultimate testing of their Faith. Do we obey God or man? All those who follow the Vatican II Church and the Traditional Chapels are following man and not God!

You may be asking, “How could Benedict XVI, his 4 predecessors and 3,000 Bishops be wrong? If you think for one moment that truth depends on numbers, it is better to ask how could 260 prior Popes, untold thousands of Bishops and millions of Priests, including saints, scholars and martyrs for 2,000 years have been wrong? Compare those numbers with the new religion of the Church of Vatican II in the last 46 years, a scandal ridden, decimated Church led by four anti-Popes having committed untold heresies between them. It is of the utmost importance that you, dear reader, understand that the Catholic Church which Our Divine Saviour founded will exist, as Our Lord promised, till the end of the world. Because Our Lord is truth Itself, He does not and cannot reside in any Church, be it the Church of Vatican II or traditional chapels that corrupt the very foundation of the Catholic Faith as it was handed down by Him. As in the days of old, Our Lord is found in the catacombs with His Faithful followers. We are not helpless, nor are we who are following God’s Holy Will forgotten. He has not left us as orphans! If God allows this crucifixion and entombment of the Church Militant, He has allowed the Crucifixion and entombment of His own beloved Son first. A resurrection is imminent, but in the meantime, we can survive spiritually by not allowing our fear to interfere with our Faith. There can be no greater apostasy from the true Faith than the one we have witnessed and we know there can be no return to how things were before it took place. Our Lord's prophecy is being fulfilled and He will come in judgment of a world which has now rejected God the Father (at the Fall), God the Son (at the Crucifixion), and God the Holy Ghost (at the Great Apostasy).

We remind you dear reader, of Our Lady's appearance and prophecies at LaSalette, France, on September 19, 1846: "In the last days, Rome will lose the Faith and become the seat of the Antichrist." St. Nicholas of Flue (15th century): "The Church will sink deeper and deeper until she will at last seem to be extinguished, and the succession of Peter and the other Apostles to have expired."

In 1970, five years after the close of Vatican Council II, our family could no longer in conscience attend this New Church, with its New Religion which continued to call itself the Catholic Church. This New Church, to give only one example, had the audacity to change Our Lord's very own words of Consecration, as though Our Divine Savior made a mistake and they had to correct Him. They would have us believe they knew better than God, who created the heavens and earth and all things in it. Little did we realize at the time, that indeed the Vatican II Church changed the word "many" to "all" in the consecration, for very nefarious reasons. Christ said "many" because in His Infinite Wisdom, He knew "all" would not be saved, given the fact that "all" had free will, and "all" would not choose to follow Him. The word "many" refers to those who choose to obey Christ. The "all" used in the Church of Vatican II, would now include inter-communion, inter-faith worship, "all" peoples going straight to heaven, "all" religions good and worthy of praise, etc. Which are all heretical and in contradiction to the two thousand year teachings of the His Church. Our Lord said, "Many are called but few are chosen" and try to "enter by the narrow gate."

With "all" its heretical aberrations it could not possibly be the same Church Our Divine Savior suffered and died for. At that time (1970) I asked Msgr. Michael McGuire, the author of the Baltimore Catechism, who happened to be the Pastor of a local Church, if my family could attend the Traditional churches. His response, "Stay away from them, they are in error, they are not the True Catholic Church nor can they ever be," sad to say several years later I did exactly what this good Monsignor told me not to do.

When the Church of Vatican II introduced “Lay Ministers,” where, heretofore, a priest’s fingers were consecrated, and it was only with those fingers that a priest, and no one else, was permitted to touch the sacred species, I knew we must leave this unholy place. It was no longer the Holy Eucharist that people were receiving. The miracle of Transubstantiation that changes the substance of the bread and wine into the Body and Blood of Our Lord Jesus Christ was not taking place, because matter, form, and intention were lacking. Instead of the unbloody sacrifice on the altar, this New Church called it a “memorial service” (only symbolic) and turned its back on Our Lord and the high altar, replacing it with a table facing the people. It was now a Peoples Church, not the Church founded by Christ. It was then I took my family (May God Forgive me!) on a twenty year odyssey in the wrong direction, attending different traditional chapels where I thought we were receiving the true sacraments. Not one of these chapels, as it turned out, was following the laws of God. They all have the trappings of the True Church but they are not the Church founded by Christ, nor could they ever be. There are no blessings or graces to be had when one turns their back on the laws of God. His laws come before all else!

In the mid 60’s, sixty-one Catholic parents, including me, were writing and disseminating reviews of the un-Catholic catechisms which had just been introduced into the parochial schools of the New York Archdiocese, as well as every diocese throughout the U.S. At that time I should have followed the example of Monsignor Michael McGuire, a true Soldier of Christ, and a priest for fifty years. Monsignor had been entrusted by the Catholic Church in 1940’s through 1950’s to write several editions of The Baltimore Catechism, which gave the children a solid foundation in the truths of their Faith. However, Monsignor vehemently objected to the recently issued “new” modern catechisms for first graders. He said they, "Were devoid of the true teachings of the Catholic Church and were detrimental to the innocent souls of the children in his parish.” Monsignor’s words were prophetic because the youngsters of today have absolutely no knowledge of the True Faith handed down by the Apostles. They are all taught the heretical religion of the Church of Vatican II which means they have absolutely no foundation in the truths of the Catholic Church from the time of the Apostles. Monsignor McGuire’s only “crime” was trying to protect the Faith of God’s precious little lambs placed under his care. Because of his outspoken objections to these catechisms, this faithful servant of God was called down to the New York Archdiocesan Office, whereby he told the Chancery officials, “He could not in conscience allow the innocent children of his parish to use books which were harmful to the true Faith.” For emphasis, Monsignor told them, “The catechisms contained a religion; however, it was not the Catholic religion." No truer words were ever spoken! Upon his return from the Chancery Office, Monsignor told me and other Catholic mothers he had been the recipient of untold pressure to put his seal of approval on these anti-Catholic catechisms. The Archdiocese told this loyal priest of God to cease and desist his objections to these catechisms or get out. He did indeed, "get out" with no visible means of support! Like the martyrs of old he stood up in defense of his Faith! He would not, and could not, under his watch, stand by and see these little innocent children robbed of their Catholic Faith.

"And whosoever shall scandalize one of these little ones that believe in me, it were better for him that a millstone were hanged about his neck, and he were cast into the sea." (Mark 9:42)

Of Monsignor Michael McGuire, it can be truly said, "I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the Faith." (2 Timothy 4:7) He left the anti-Catholic Church of Vatican II! He did not start his own chapel, steeped in theology as he was and now without jurisdiction. Monsignor knew this was forbidden, and he was obedient to the laws of God and the teachings of his Faith. He lived the rest of his life in private, offering his daily Mass, as it were in the catacombs, while making reparation to Almighty God for the sins committed in His name by the Church of Vatican II. There was a tremendous exodus of priests, nuns and laity at that time, and for decades following, whose consciences told them this was no longer the Catholic Church and they had to obey God rather than man!

The Papal Coronation Oath, begins with the words, "I vow: to change nothing of the received tradition and nothing thereof I have found before me guarded by my God-pleasing predecessors, (from St. Peter to Pope Pius XII) to encroach, to alter, or to permit any innovation therein...Accordingly, without exclusion, we subject to severest excommunication, anyone be it ourself or be it another – who would dare to undertake anything new in contradiction" to "tradition" and the "purity" of "the Christian Religion, or would seek to change anything." (Liber Diurnus Romanorum Pontificium, PL 105, S54) Since the death of Pope Pius XII in 1958 every modernist "Pope" has ignored the words of this compulsory Coronation Oath!

The Sign of the Times, Rev. H. Nagelschmitt, Imprimatur, Dec. 8, 1915. "Now look, I beg you, at the people who say that religion ought to be adapted to the spirit of the age, and progress with it. Can you imagine them to be capable of improving and perfecting the works of God...It is a spirit that denies and contradicts the truths revealed by God, a spirit of disobedience, license; it is, in short, the spirit of the devil, the prince of this world and the enemy of God and His holy Church... St. Paul (the Apostle) even goes so far as to curse any who dare to tamper with the truths of Christianity. ‘Although we, or an angel from heaven, preach a Gospel to you besides that which we have preached to you, let him be anathema.’ (Gal. i,8) It is a lot common to all human institutions to be liable to continual change and alteration, whereas what is Divine is eternal and unchanging like God Himself... The teaching of the Church on matters of Faith and Morals cannot be altered like a garment, to suit the prevailing fashion. Men can neither add to nor take away from the truth of our Faith, and even the Pope, the visible head of the Church, is powerless to effect any modification.” Those attending the new religion of Vatican II fail to realize that upon the death of the last Apostle the Deposit of Faith given to them by Our Divine Saviour was forever sealed.

Are you aware that the man-made Mass used in the Church of Vatican II was composed in 1967 with the active cooperation of six heretical Protestant clergymen? It was formulated precisely so that it would not offend those who do not believe in the divinity of Christ, that is, those who do not believe that Our Divine Saviour is truly present on the altar, and even those who deny Christ. The Real Presence is never alluded to, and belief in it (Transubstantiation) is implicitly repudiated. Protestant theologians, Max Thurian and others, have satisfied themselves that this is no longer the True Mass, “It is now theologically possible for Protestants to use the same Mass as the Catholics.” (La Croix, May 30, 1969) Indeed, to further prove this point, Benedict XVI was pictured giving communion in the hand to this very same Protestant, Max Thurian. In addition, are you aware that when Benedict XVI attended the sessions of Vatican Council II (1962-65) as Fr. Ratzinger he did so in shirt and tie to show his contempt for the Church. He was a progressive (leftist) theologian at that time and remains so to this very day.

“And they shall defile the sanctuary of strength, and shall take away the continual sacrifice, and they shall place there the abomination of Desolation.” (Dan. 11:31)

Addis and Arnold’s Catholic Dictionary, 1951, under “Dogmatic Facts” we quote, “The Church has no power to make new dogmas. It is her office to contend for the faith once delivered, and to hand down the sacred deposit which she has received without adding to it or taking from it...with regard to a new definition of Transubstantiation-Christians have a twofold duty. They are obliged to believe, first that the doctrine so defined is true, and next that it is part of the Christian revelation received by the Apostles. Again, no Christian is at liberty to refuse assent to any dogma which the Church proposes. To do so involves nothing less than shipwreck of the faith...” Can anything be plainer than that? The Church of Vatican II stands condemned for dismantling the Church handed down to them by the Apostles and changing it into “the abomination of desolation” which was foretold in Holy Scripture. I shudder to think what will happen to all those responsible when they stand before the judgment seat of God and stand accused of leading millions of souls away from the True Faith.

It would take many volumes to list all the heretical changes in the Church of Vatican II. Let this brief list suffice: Protestant worship – communion in the hand - altar replaced with a table – confessionals removed - crucifixes, statues, pre-Vat. II books destroyed – Church calendar changed - God addressed as you would a stranger, “You” – all Seven Sacraments replaced – new Bible – heretical catechisms – annulments. (correction: divorces) and cremation permitted. Result; priests, nuns and the laity fled by the thousands, hundreds of churches, seminaries and schools closed. Seminarians in our country alone dropped by 90% in the last thirty years. As the true Faith expired in the souls of Catholics, numerous scandals such as pedophilia and homosexuality emerged which resulted in more and more churches and school closings in order to pay off the millions of dollars in lawsuits brought against this scandalous church. Hundreds of Cardinals, Bishops and priests either covered up or preyed upon little children, subjecting them to the most unspeakable sexual crimes which will scar these little ones for life. “But he that shall scandalize one of these little ones that believe in me, it were better for him that a millstone should be hanged about his neck, and that he should be drowned in the depth of the sea.” (Luke 17:2)

St. Vincent of Lerins: “If one yields ground on any single point of Catholic doctrine, one will later have to yield later in another, and again in another, and so on until such surrenders come to be something normal and acceptable. And when one gets used to rejecting dogma bit by bit, the final result will be the repudiation of it altogether.” That precisely sums up the Church of Vatican II!

Our loyalty must remain with Our Divine Savior who suffered and died a most horrible death for love of us. For those of us who are willing at all costs to come to the defense of Our Suffering Savior it is time to stand up and be counted. Benedict XVI came to New York (April 2008) and went to a Jewish synagogue, not to convert; but to praise the Jewish people in their error. Benedict XVI who visits and prays at synagogues with unbelievers betrays Jesus Christ, as the visit grants public legitimacy to a religion that holds Jesus Christ in disdain, believing Him to be a liar and deceiver. It tells Jews that their religion which spurns Christ is of equal value with the Catholic religion in which Christ is the center of all. The official Vatican document issued on February 13, 2008, and addressed to Chief Rabbi David Rosen, reveals that the Good Friday Prayer for the Jews has been rewritten. It states that the Church will, “no longer speak about the conversion of the Jews.” Jews are not to be converted, “We (Church of Vatican II) will undertake no Missionary activity.” This is the stated policy of the Church of Vatican II with regard to all the other non-Catholic religions as well! What we are witnessing in the Church of Vatican II, regarding the conversions of those belonging to other faiths, is the denial of the Apostolicity of the Catholic Church. How can the Church be considered Apostolic if she refuses to convert souls? Our Lord gave this command to His Apostles: “Go therefore, teach ye all nations: baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Ghost.” This policy proves the Vatican II apostates hold Our Divine Savior’s mandate in contempt, as they have no intention of bringing people to the Catholic Faith. The Vatican leaders prefer that Jewish, Protestants and all other faiths remain in their heresies without any concern for the eternal salvation of their members, or the fact that they may well burn in the fires of hell for all eternity. Ponder these words from Holy Scripture very carefully:

“By their fruits you shall know them.” Matt. 7:15-16

Benedict XVI also went to the un-godly United Nations as did his predecessors, Paul VI and John Paul II. To further increase the scandal, this papal pretender, while at the U.N., visited the God-hating, occult Meditation Room. Benedict XVI then said “mass” at St. Patrick’s Cathedral, where the man who usurped the papal chair in Rome distributed Communion in the hand, which was televised for all to see. We must say ENOUGH! ENOUGH! It is important for you to know that Communion in the hand was introduced in the 16th century by the Protestant Reformers specifically to repudiate belief in the Catholic Priesthood and the Real Presence. This sacrilegious act of Benedict XVI resulted in a “host” from this “papal mass” being auctioned off on eBay. Communion in the hand was condemned by the Synod of Rouen in 650 A.D. to halt widespread abuses that occurred from this practice, and as a safeguard against sacrilege and desecration. Saint Thomas Aquinas taught that only the consecrated (hands of the priest) should touch the consecrated Sacred Host. Summa Pt. III, Q. 82 ART #3. Prior to Vatican Council II no true Pontiff would ever partake of such a sacrilegious insult to Almighty God! Would Our Suffering Saviour condone what Benedict XVI has done? What would the martyrs of old who died defending the Sacred Species from desecration have to say? Although the vast majority receiving it believed it was the Holy Eucharist, we, who by the grace of God hold true to the teachings of our Catholic Faith, know that indeed it was not the Sacred Species that Benedict XVI distributed. Why? The Church of Vatican II is an heretical Church and does not have valid sacraments, and is therefore, an abomination in the eyes of God. The True Church has announced many times that the substance of the sacraments is an area that is untouchable, even by the Church itself. Pope Saint Pius X taught, "It is well known that to the Church there belongs no right whatsoever to innovate anything pertaining to the substance of the sacraments." (Ex Quo, Nono, Dec. 26, 1910)

Is it not our duty as Catholics to take the gloves off and condemn these abominations in no uncertain terms? To do otherwise means we are partakers of this scandal and sacrilege! No one may keep silent in the presence of error. When we leave error unopposed, we violate the command, "Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with thy whole mind." Why do so many have "eyes that see not and ears that hear not?" This much we do know, that time is running out and it is time to stand up and be counted. When we stand before God on judgment day we will all be held accountable for our actions.

Qui tacet consentit "He who is silent consents."

Saint Vincent of Lerins, "What if some new contagion was to poison no longer a small part of the Church, but all of the Church at the same time? Cleave to Antiquity! Tradition cannot possibly be seduced by any fraud or novelty...Believe that, and only that, which the Catholic Church held universally and from ancient times...the same doctrine, the same sense, and in the same meaning." (Commonitorium) That advice, like the Word of God itself, is a lamp to our feet and a light to our path. Let us follow that path!

"The holy places are come into the hands of strangers...And behold our sanctuary and our beauty and our glory are laid waste and the Gentiles have defiled them"
(1 Mach. 28:12)

Remember the words of Our Blessed Mother when she appeared in 1848: "Rome will lose the faith, and become the seat of the Anti-Christ" It is well to note, the apparition of LaSalette was approved by the Church five years after it occurred.

St. Paul warns us in the great prophecy pertaining to the latter days:

"Whose coming is according to the working of Satan, in all power and lying wonders; and in all seduction of iniquity to them that perish; because they receive not the love of the truth, that they might be saved. Therefore, God shall send them the operation of error, to believe lying; that all may be judged who have not believed the truth, but have consented to iniquity.” (St. Paul’s Second Letter to the Thessalonians 2:9-11)

Words of Our Divine Savior:

“My sheep hear My voice, and I know them and they follow Me.”

At Calvary there was a very small silent gathering. It was composed of Mary, the Mother of God; St. John, the only Apostle who had the courage to follow Christ all the way; St. Mary Magdalen, a repentant sinner who knelt in sorrow at the foot of the Cross; and a few holy women who had followed Jesus and believed in Him to the very end. They remained faithful to Him in sorrowful silence at the foot of the cross. Where are their counterparts today?

When we read Our Lord’s words in Holy Scripture (Matt.24) we are told what is to take place in the last days and to recognize the events as they unfold. Our Merciful Savior reveals that the gates of Hell will not prevail against the Church and that He will remain with the Church, which means those who remain faithful to Him and follow His laws, until the end of the world. Neither Christ nor any of the Fathers; not scripture nor Tradition has ever taught or claimed that there would always be an incumbent sitting in the papal chair. In fulfillment of Our Lord’s prophecies pertaining to the latter days, the remnant which Our Divine Saviour foretold could be many people, or a few persons. As long as these faithful Catholics keep the unaltered, undiluted Faith, and fulfill Christ’s command to “Teach all men all Truths,” they constitute the Church and wherever they are, He is with them. We align ourselves with the Glorious Church, the Church of the Martyrs and Saints. Recall, Our Lord was not found with the vast hordes who had turned against Him, He was found in the catacombs with His little band of followers.

“The declared enemies of God and His Church, heretics and schismatics, must be criticized as much as possible, as long as truth is not denied. It is a work of charity to shout: 'Here is the wolf' when it enters the flock or anywhere else.”

St. Francis de Sales, Introduction to the Devout Life, Part III, Chapter 29.

The obligation of going to Mass on Sunday applies only to the True Holy Sacrifice of the Mass for which the laws of the Church were made. For those among you who say, “I must go to Church for my children’s sake,” I would answer; if water was not available would you give God’s little lambs kerosene to drink? Know this, if you remain in these churches your children will not be raised in the Catholic Faith! Concerned about a division in your family if you stay home? Be more concerned about what God thinks and the salvation of your immortal soul.

“Fear ye not them that kill the body, and are not able to kill the soul; but rather fear him that can destroy both body and soul in hell...Every one therefore that shall confess me before men, I will also confess him before my Father who is in heaven. But he that shall deny me before men, I will also deny him before my Father who is in heaven.”
(Matt. 10:28-33)

By your attendance at these “churches” you are cutting yourself off from God and His Saints and going along with schism, heresy and error. Facts do not cease to be facts just because we don’t like to face up to them; we must do what is right because it is right in the eyes of God. In His mercy and according to Church law we can still avail ourselves of two valid Sacraments, lay Baptism and Marriage, in which the couple confer the Sacrament upon each other. I know how difficult this is for you who are still attending the Church of Vatican II or the traditional chapels but the fact that you are still attending tells me that in your heart you wish to do what is right. Again, we would plead with you to say the nine day Novena to the Holy Ghost and ask Him to guide you and give you the grace to follow His Holy Will.

"Better that only a few Catholics should be left, staunch and sincere in their religion, than that they should, remaining many, desire as it were, to be in collusion with the Church's enemies and in conformity with the open foes of our faith."
St. Peter Canisius (1521-1597)

“The Son of Man, when He cometh, shall He find, think you, faith on earth?”
These are the words of Our Blessed Lord Jesus Christ. (Luke 18:8)

Whither goest thou, Wayfarer?
~~~~~

Remember, there were long periods in the history of the Church when Catholics were deprived of the sacraments. For example, the Japanese were without the Mass and Sacraments, with the exception of Baptism and Marriage, for a period of two hundred years and yet when the Catholic missionaries returned they found the True Faith intact.

Private Baptism C. 771 – may be administered in any place by a layperson using (only) plain clean water and pouring it over the forehead (of the baby or adult) while saying, “I Baptize thee in the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost.”

Moral Theology, by Fathers Jone and Adelman, Imprimatur 1946.

We must say our Morning Offering each and every day and have the right intention while saying our prayers. Daily we must recite our Rosary and say our night prayers. We must wear the scapular of Our Lady of Mount Carmel made of 100% brown wool. Of course, there are no priests to bless them, however, if you were born prior to Vatican Council II, and you were enrolled in the scapular, you are enrolled for life. When kissing the scapular, morning and night, the Carmelite rule states we should say, “Our Lady of Mount Carmel, pray for us.”

Meditate each day for 15-30 minutes, as early in the day as possible. The writings of St. Alphonsus Maria de Liguori are excellent and keep one on track in both the fear and love of God. If possible, pray the Angelus, morning, afternoon and evening. Pray especially for the grace of final perseverance, for the grace of God’s holy love and ask Almighty God to teach you to do His most holy Will each day.

An Act of Perfect Contrition can be used in place of Penance (Confession). Perfect contrition is had when the motive of our sorrow is the love of God as the highest Good and for His Own sake. Thus we are sorry for mortal sins because by them we have offended the greatest and most lovable Good.—Such contrition justifies the sinner before the actual reception of the Sacrament of Penance when it includes at least implicitly the will to confess” (if a valid priest were available).

Moral Theology, by Fathers, Jone and Adelman, Imprimatur. 1946.

How to say an Act of Perfect Contrition, By the Confraternity of the Precious Blood

Copyright 1936.

A Perfect Contrition washes away even mortal sin, but in such a case it is necessary to have the intention to go to Confession. It may save your soul at death if no Priest is near for the Sacraments. Learn this for yourself, teach it to others, especially to one near death. A Perfect Contrition becomes easy by meditating on the Sufferings of Christ or before a Crucifix. “Who” is suffering? “What” is He suffering? “Why?”

ACT OF PERFECT CONTRITION

O My God, I am heartily sorry and beg pardon for all my sins. NOT SO MUCH because these sins bring suffering and hell to me, but because they have crucified my loving Saviour Jesus Christ and offended Thine infinite Goodness. I firmly resolve, with the help of Thy grace, to confess my sins, to do penance and to amend my life. Amen.

SPIRITUAL COMMUNION

The Council of Trent requires for a Spiritual Communion an ardent desire, lively faith, and fervent charity. Pray with a contrite, pure, and humble heart: My Jesus, I believe that Thou art truly present in the Most Blessed Sacrament. I love Thee above all things and I desire to possess Thee within my soul. Since I am unable to receive Thee sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my soul. (Pause) I embrace Thee as being already there, and unite myself wholly to Thee; never permit me to be separated from Thee.”

The Sacraments Explained, Imprimatur 1898, by Rev. Arthur Devine, Passionist, “A Spiritual Communion consists of the following acts: (1) An act of faith, by which we firmly believe that Christ is present in the Holy Eucharist. (2) An act of love, accompanied by an act of contrition for our sins. (3) An act of desire, by which we invite Christ to come into our souls. (4) An act of thanksgiving, as if we had really received him.” This holy priest tells us that, “precious graces are obtained” with a Spiritual Communion.

St. Thomas Aquinas described Spiritual Communion as "an ardent desire to receive Jesus in the Most Holy Sacrament and in lovingly embracing Him." With a contrite and humble heart, we ask Our Lord to come to us in the same way He would if we were able to receive Him Sacramentally.

Remember that Our Blessed Mother is the gate of heaven, “Our Lady of the Rosary obtain for me from Thy Divine Son, the grace of final perseverance so that after death I may take my place among the Church Triumphant in Heaven.” The grace of final perseverance and following Our Divine Savior’s Holy Will is so very important. Remember always, Thy Will Be Done -- NOT – My will be done. Indeed these are frightening days but we will survive spiritually – with the grace of God during this Great Apostasy by following His laws and the teachings of Holy Mother the Church prior to the false Vatican Council II.

True Faith is a tremendous gift from Almighty God and a grace we must cherish and pray for daily. The devil goes about like a roaring lion and we have learned there are numerous traps ready to ensnare us. To avoid these, fervent and constant prayer is necessary. Read your Missal and Goffine's, Explanation of the Epistles and Gospels, (1880) every Sunday and Holy Day.

Recommended Book List

Do not purchase any books from TAN Books, when they “reprint” pre-Vatican II books they have been known to remove text which does not conform with their ideas. The vast majority of trad groups sell TAN's corrupted books. In these days of worldwide apostasy the truth is becoming harder and harder to find. Millions of excellent books which contained the truths of our Faith were purposely destroyed by the Church of Vatican II, while others were “revised” and bore no resemblance to the True Faith given to us by Our Lord. Fortunately for those who have a love of the Truth some of these Spiritual Treasures can still be found through used book dealers. We recommend the following: The Douay Rheims Bible, (the only authentic Bible) - St. Andrew Missal, by Dom Gaspar Lefebvre (copyright must be before 1951), - The Creed Explained, Rev. Arthur Devine (I found myself underlining almost every page) This invaluable book can be read or downloaded free of charge: <http://www.archive.org/details/thecreedexplaine00deviuoft> Explanation of the Epistles and Gospels, Rev. Leonard Goffine, 1880 Edition - My Catholic Faith, Bishop Louis LaRavoire Morrow (excellent foundation of the truths of our Faith) 1954 copyright or earlier, the later “revised” editions have been corrupted - The Imitation of Christ, or Following of Christ, (A Spiritual Classic) by Thomas `A Kempis (copyright before 1954). The foregoing are the essentials, these books are a tremendous help in understanding what the Roman Catholic Church has always taught. In addition, The Liturgical Year, by Abbot Dom Gueranger, O.S.B, 1878, - The Spiritual Life, (1930) by Fr. Adolphe Tanquerey. The little book, My Daily Bread, by Rev. Anthony Paone, S.J., is highly recommended. In addition books written by: Rev. Arthur Devine, C.P. - Father Francis Hunolt S.J. - Fr. Francis X. Lasance - Rev. John Kearney, c.s.s.p. - Madame Cecelia, - Rev. Fr. Bruno Vercausse, S.J. - Father Augustus Dignam, S.J.- Christian Pesch, S.J.- Most Rev. Tihamer Toth -Very Rev. John Leo Dehon - Rev. Fr. Grou, S.J.- Rev. Ferreol Girardey, C.S.S.R- Francis P. Donnelly, S.J.- Philip E. Dion, C.M. Rev. Fulgence Meyer - Gaetano Cardinal De Lai. We have recently discovered that many of these spiritual treasures can be downloaded free of charge from: <http://www.archive.org/details/texts>.

In addition, for reference purposes it is suggested that you try to obtain either, Addis and Arnold's, Catholic Dictionary, (1884-1951) or Attwater's, A Catholic Dictionary, (1941). Also, Dictionary of Dogmatic Theology, by Pietro Parente copyright 1951, also for research into the truths of our Faith, Exposition of Christian Doctrine, in three volumes, Dogma, Morals and Worship, by “A Seminary Professor” (1908) or the abridged edition, Manual of Christian Doctrine, (1918). It is recommended that you read the following encyclicals: Ad Apostolorum Principis by His Holiness Pope Pius XII, Charitas by Pope Pius VI, The Papal Bull, Execrabilis by Pope Pius II.

To locate and purchase these books by priest authors may we suggest:

<http://www.abebooks.com> - <http://addall.com/Used/> -
<http://www.bookfinder.com/> - <http://usedbooksearch.co.uk> -
<http://www.alibris.com>

Please remember each day to pray for the souls in Purgatory, there are so few who are praying for these poor suffering souls.

We must pray for one another while living in this vale of tears which is our earthly sojourn that we may have peace in our hearts and souls and strive to become saints. God bless you and reward you for striving, with God’s help, to value this pearl of great price, our Holy Catholic Faith. May God protect us in the days, weeks and months to come and may He strengthen us in our resolve and willingness to persevere in the True Faith!

RECOMMENDATION TO ONE’S GUARDIAN ANGEL FOR A HAPPY HOUR OF DEATH

By St. Charles Borromeo

My good Angel: I know not when or how I shall die. It is possible I may be carried off suddenly, and that before my last sigh I may be deprived of all intelligence. Yet how many things I would wish to say to God on the threshold of eternity. In the full freedom of my will today, I come to charge you to speak for me at that fearful moment. You say to Him, then, O my good Angel:

That I wish to die in the Roman Catholic Apostolic Church in which all the saints since Jesus Christ have died, and out of which there is no salvation.

That I ask the grace of sharing in the infinite merits of my Redeemer and that I desire to die pressing to my lips the cross that was bathed in His Blood!

That I detest my sins because they displease Him, and that I pardon, through love of Him, all my enemies as I wish to be pardoned.

That I die willingly because He orders it and that I throw myself with confidence into His Adorable Heart awaiting all His Mercy.

That in my inexpressible desire to go to Heaven I am disposed to suffer everything it may please His sovereign Justice to inflict on me.

That I love Him before all things, above all things and for His own sake; that I wish and hope to love Him with the Elect, His angels and the Blessed Mother during all Eternity.

Do not refuse, O my Angel, to be my interpreter with God, and to protest to Him that these are my sentiments and my will. Amen.

“For thus saith the Lord God: Behold I myself will seek my sheep, and will visit them. As the shepherd visiteth his flock in the day when he shall be in the midst of his sheep that were scattered, so will I visit my sheep, and will deliver them out of all the places where they have been scattered in the cloudy and dark days....Ezech. 34:11, 12.