5-2-24 = Yesterday and today I changed many audiobook files into shorter links – so that we do not need to scroll so far to find the next books. I have also added new links under the Fun & Serious section. I also added these articles – under the Important Articles to be Read by Patrick Henry: Are they members of the One, Holy, Catholic, and Apostolic Church, Bible, Holy Mass, Pope, and dictionaries describing the earth, Do I believe that the CMRI has valid Orders?, Oceans are level, and planes do not fly over the horizon, Pope Leo XIII teaches infallibly that it is a matter of Catholic faith that the earth is the center of the universe, Public Land Survey System \(PLSS\) map of the United States, SSPX is famous for its recognize and resist position.

4-30-24 = I started with my own WordPress website. Thanks to God, I could upload thousands of files today to make the audio, MP3, and PDF files available worldwide.

February 2024 = The “professional” company I paid to build a WordPress website failed me and could not build a website and make all of the hyperlinks work that I had on the old website. Consequently, I had to remove the WordPress website and return to the old HTML website. Now, the only choice I had to change the website was to learn three or four new programs and build my own WordPress website. With over 2,000 files on the website, it has been quite a learning experience. Nevertheless, by April 30, 2024, I made the new WordPress website available to the world.
